PASTORAL LEADER'S NOTES

Dear Parishioners,

If I asked you who are the two people in our parish that come to mind when you say, "Fr. Carr's Place 2B" it will probably be Lisa and Bob Marinack.

For the past 36 years Lisa has been a volunteer at the St. Francis Free Medical Health Clinic and Bob has been her faithful "helper and chauffeur." During those years Lisa recruited doctors, nurses and receptionists. She scheduled volunteers who touched patients with care, compassion and dignity. She worked countless hours at the clinic and from home. Father Carr's mission of loving Jesus through those in need became Lisa and Bob's mission.

Both of them have recently retired from their service at Fr. Carr's and I want to thank them on behalf of our parish for being true missionary disciples whose commitment and dedication to those in need are an example for all of us to follow.

Thank you, Lisa and Bob, for sharing so much of yourselves in service to others! We are blessed to have you among us at St. Mary's.

Annual Collection for our Sister Parish

In January, 2012, we signed our FIRST Adopt a Mission Covenant between St. Mary Church and the Catholic Community of Unicoi County in Erwin, TN. Eight years later that Catholic Community is now called St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Parish with over 125 parishioners and their own multi-purpose building.

Each year we renew our covenant with our "sister parish" and both parishes mutually agree to:

⇒ pray for each other,
⇒ exchange information through photos, letters, email, social media…
⇒ exchange visits by parish personnel and/or parishioners.
⇒ support them in a small way financially as they continue their own efforts toward stability.

Our total yearly financial support is $2,400 and both of our Parish Councils decided that the best way to collect this money each year would be simply by having a second collection. Next weekend, September 21/22, we will have that second collection. It's just a small way for us to support this parish as they continue to grow and make a difference in Erwin, TN!

Ignore scam requests!

Recently, a number of parishioners have received emails claiming to come from me, asking for gift cards or other financial help. These requests are not from me, and are a scam. Other pastors in this area and around the country are also the target of this scam. As with all requests like this, please verify that they are legitimate by calling the parish office before responding. I am sorry for the confusion this has been causing.

Sr. Pam
