PASTORAL PONDERINGS

God is not stingy with his mercy. God loves to pour his mercy on us. At our slightest wish for forgiveness, he rushes to us. Remember the magnificent scene in the story of the Prodigal Son? The son hesitates to return because he is fearful of how effective his confession will be. But every day his father goes to a hilltop scanning the road for his son. When the boy returns and is still a long way away, his father sees him and is full of compassion. He runs to his son, embraces him, and kisses him.

God is always running toward us with a heart full of mercy, which enables us to be forgiven for our sins and makes confession a joy. That is what the gift of this sacrament means. It means real conversion and is a grace from God. It is God who pulls our hearts away from sin and draws us longingly to him.

Lent begins this coming week with Ash Wednesday and during Lent you might consider experiencing the beautiful Sacrament of Reconciliation. The key to a good confession is to be prepared so when you are with the priest you can share the kind of sin and the number of times. This preparation starts with an examination of your conscience.

I invite you to take a look at some of the questions you might ask yourself as you prepare for confession.

Did you deny or doubt God's existence? Did you deny being a Catholic? Did you disobey or disrespect your parents? Did you neglect duties to your husband, wife, children, or parents? Were you impatient, angry, envious, unkind, proud, jealous, vengeful, or hateful towards others? Did you willingly entertain impure thoughts and desires? Were you unfaithful to your marriage vows? Did you steal, cheat, help or encourage others to steal, cheat, or keep stolen goods? Did you fail to keep secrets that should have been kept? Did you gossip? Did you fail to confess your sins at least once a year? Did you receive Holy Communion in a state of mortal sin? Did you forgive those who have hurt you or harmed you or your loved ones?

Other ways to prepare are to see if you have kept the Ten Commandments, practiced the virtues, or have observed the Corporal Works of Mercy. There are some excellent resources outside the confessional at both our churches that have many of these ideas and more to help you. You can even take them with you to the confessional.

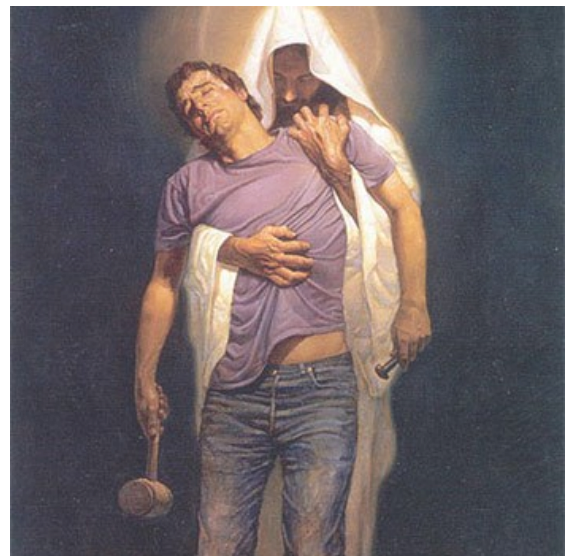

When you are prepared your confession can go quickly and smoothly. Please remember that confession is designed to tell the priest our sins...kind and number of times. It is not a time for spiritual direction. It is not a time to look for counsel on your journey of faith or discover God's will in your life. If you are looking for spiritual direction, both of our churches can be of service. We have a spiritual director who has over 40 years' experience and has served countless numbers of people. They will meet with you for no charge, and you can contact them through our church offices.

Jesus preached repentance and provided us with the sacrament of reconciliation to respond to our needs. Jesus wants us to make a good confession.

1 John 1:9 "if we acknowledge our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from every wrongdoing."

God bless you and your family.

Deacon Paul Vidmar

Reflections on the Mass (Part 2)

What is Sr. Pam doing since she retired. She is currently working part time as the Pastoral Care Coordinator at St. Francis of Assisi Church in Manitowoc along with giving talks and workshops in parishes throughout Wisconsin. She also does vocation work for her Community and is just starting to organize their annual Jubilee celebrations.

Here's what you can do to prepare for the first session:

Attend Mass the weekend before February 22 and pay attention to the first part of the Mass. Reflect on these questions as you celebrate with the assembly:

Did the Entrance Song help us to know that we are not alone?

Did the Penitential Rite help us get ready to enter into the Mass?

Was the Amen at the end of the Opening Prayer full of life and energy?

As you listened to the readings what word or words did you hear that you have never heard before? Were there any images that came to mind?

Did the message of the homily speak to you? How were you able to put it into practice?

What were the needs of the world that you prayed for this week?

SUMMARY OF PRESENTATIONS

These two evenings are NOT going to be a history lesson or a mini-theology course on the Mass. Instead, we are going to use the mystagogical method to help us enter into the mystery of the Mass and allow ourselves to be touched and transformed by its power.

Why not take some time for you and go to the movies?
