PASTORAL PONDERINGS

On December 29th, the Blessed Sacrament was unlawfully taken from the Adoration Chapel in Oshkosh. For Roman Catholics this was an egregious act because the foundation of our Catholic belief is the understanding that a consecrated host is the actual Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.

Also distressing, is that the action was done by someone who was an “insider.” There was no forced entry. The person knew the security codes for two different doors as well as the location of the tabernacle key. This was not an impulsive action, rather one that took planning and preparation.

At first, I was under the assumption that the Host and the vessel it was contained within were taken. That made some sense. Someone did this to get cash. The gold vessels would have sizeable street value in some Milwaukee pawn shop. However, that was not the case. Only the Blessed Sacrament was removed. Nothing else was taken.

One possibility that could be entertained is a link to a satanic cult. Secondly, we can consider the action done by a person with mental and emotional issues, or thirdly, that someone took on an ultimate challenge for recognition on a social media platform. An ongoing investigation might someday prove one of these theories correct.

Headlines in the news led with “Jesus is Stolen” I do not believe that. Jesus, in the appearance of a host was taken. No one of us, nor the power of all that is evil can steal away the Body, Soul and Divinity that is our Lord Jesus Christ. God simply is too big for that.

As we so often say, “Why did God let this happen?” Can we even imagine all the other times in history when God allowed the direction of an action to be turned on end to further God’s plan? We’ve read about Eucharistic Miracles that occur in our world today. That Friday evening, Jesus could have appeared in actual human flesh causing the person to flee the Chapel in terror, but Jesus didn’t. Yet, with the Body and Blood of Jesus being reserved in countless Tabernacles in our world there must have been other instances where people tried to violate the Eucharist, and “something” stopped them.

According to articles I’ve been reading online this week, the violation of our Holy Eucharist or church vessels is a more common occurrence than we think. This indicates, that while we seriously take on the obligation to honor and respect all that is holy by making sure security measures are in place, we can’t “protect” Jesus even if we tried. Let’s face it, most of us have trouble protecting ourselves, or those in our world who are most vulnerable.

Because I believe in the real presence of Jesus, I have found myself praying about this incident with gratitude! I am choosing to believe that Jesus, already knowing the person who entered the Chapel was filled with despair, anger and confusion allowed the unthinkable to happen. Jesus allowed someone, when they were at the very lowest and worst place in their life, the intimate privilege of taking Him into their hands. Through that touch of Holy Eucharist upon human hand, I believe Jesus is drawing the person back into a redeemed and loving relationship with God. The first time Jesus gave Himself into the hands of others, he was crucified. It was an abomination. However, Jesus transformed that act with His rising from the dead. To reach out and touch Jesus, whether we will it or not, opens us to His transformation.

The Catholic Community of this area are prayerfully moving through our anger and grief at what occurred that Friday evening. Steps are being taken at all our Parishes to make sure we are up to date with the security measures needed for keeping holy places and holy things safe.

This is also a suitable time then, to acknowledge Jesus in the human tabernacle. Each of us is a tabernacle, given the privilege to carry Jesus within. For many of us the sanctuary lamp of our heart burns steadily, for others there are moments when it flickers hesitantly before regaining it’s light, and then, there are those whose tabernacle light has gone out entirely, but in each instance, Jesus has this. Our God is an Awesome God, Immense, Omnipotent and unconquerable. Amen.

JOURNEY THROUGH THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9TH AT 6:00PM

ST. MOTHER TERESA CENTER-FR. CARR'S PLACE 2B

Join us for Brian Keliher's presentation of the "Stations of the Cross." Brian will share some of his story how God has been at work in his life and the life of his family. As he has come to recognize God's presence in the midst of suffering, he invites us to reflect on our own lives, and how God is with us, even through moments of pain and loss. After listening to Brian share some of his own story, we will enter into praying the Stations of the Cross. Brian's artwork will invite us to reflect on our journey with Christ through suffering to the resurrection.

We had a great turnout for Ladies Night on Monday. Fr. Quinn had many wonderful stories of how he was accepted into Seminary and working with Mother Mary Catherine at CYE. Bingo with a "twist" was a blast, with lots of good prizes!
