PASTORAL PONDERINGS

Life, as they say, is like a roller coaster. There are times when we are up, and everything is right with the world. But then, there are times when our world suddenly turns upside down. It is in these moments that we tend to ask ourselves: where is God?

Trusting God is easy when things are going your way. But when the going gets rough, that trust can easily turn to doubt. Before we know it, we're blaming God for all the unfortunate things happening to us. However, when our problems and struggles become the center of our attention, we zoom in on that and in the process it becomes magnified. Soon we forget our blessings. We forget the good things that God is doing to us because of the trials that He gave us. The trials that God gives us are oftentimes nothing compared to his blessings.

Living with anger and resentment makes us bitter people. Before we know it, we're projecting those feelings to the people around us. These people will, in turn, treat the people around them the same way. It's a small wonder then that the world we live in today is full of people who are mean to others for no particular reason. It started with persons losing their trust and confidence in God because of some of life's stumbling blocks.

We need to have absolute trust in God because all things are possible with Him. As Jesus once said, "Everything is possible to one who has faith." (Mark 9:23) Whatever concerns us right now, no matter how seemingly impossible it may be, know that it's possible with God. This is why we have the word "miracle" because there are things that our human understanding has never understood to be possible, but it happens, nonetheless. If we need any more proof that everything is possible with God, just look at the world around us. If He can create the world and everything that's in it, then what can't He do?

We need to have absolute faith in God because He has a plan for us. We may not understand why all these things are happening to us right now, but someday we may realize that it's all part of God's plan. Take the story of Joseph in the Old Testament. He was sold by his brothers into slavery and thrown into prison. But if not for that, he would not have been able to interpret the King's dream and save the people from famine. That's how God works. He designed us according to his purpose even while we were in our mother's womb. His plans for us are not to harm us but to prosper us and to give us hope and a better future.

We need to have absolute faith in God because He knows more than we do. Sometimes we think we know what we want only to find out that it doesn't really make us happy. Most of the time we want the things that society wants for us. We spend all our time at work buying things we don't need and impressing the people we don't like. God on the other hand knows the desires of our hearts. He knows what we really want deep inside of our hearts. We can hide nothing from Him. He knows our unspoken thoughts and the longings that we have. If God doesn't answer our prayers that doesn't mean He doesn't care for us. On the contrary, He cares so much for us that's why He won't give us the things that He knows will only harm us.

We need to have absolute faith in God because Jesus told us to take up our cross. When we do this, we become a true disciple of Christ. Our sufferings resembled the cross that Jesus carried on the way to Calvary. He patiently carried it because He knew it was the only way to save us. We must do the same for him. Enduring our trials and sufferings is a testament to our willingness to become Christ's followers in every sense of the word.

We need to have absolute faith in God because we need to be able to wait on the Lord. Waiting for something isn't really easy and that is why patience is considered a virtue. God has a plan for us and the pain and suffering we're going through right now is all a part of His plan. This is why trusting God involves waiting on Him. Instead of asking God why He's not answering our prayers, ask Him to give us the strength during this waiting time and consider this time as an opportunity to work on our spiritual growth.

Trusting in God is sometimes easier said than done. It's not something that can be done overnight. Trusting in God completely involves walking in faith every day. It's letting go of our worries and fears and accepting what God has in store for us. When we lift everything up to Him and trust in His wisdom, we don't exactly become fearless. But it gives us the courage to face the difficult times with hope that God will always have our backs.

God bless you and your family.

Casseroles

Christian Action Ministry

Did you know that CAM has several parishioners who make casseroles for Fr. Carr's once a month? They have a rotation so you only make 4 casseroles a year. They ask for a 9 x 13 casserole in a disposable pan brought to the parish office on the 3rd Tues. of the month by noon. (You can drop it off on Monday before 6pm in the office.) They are looking for more parishioners who would like to join in. Call or email the Winneconne parish office, 920-582-7712 or sue.kuhn@stmarychurches.org to get on the rotation.

Thank you for helping feed those in need.

Please help CAM provide Easter meals to those in need by donating generously to our collection for WAAC. 50 local families are in need of Easter meals. There will be posters and collection boxes in the church entrances in Winneconne on the weekends of March 9 & 16. We are following Jesus' example when we help feed our brothers and sisters who are hungry. What a beautiful way to give alms this Lenten season. Thank you for your support!

Celebration of the 1st Scrutiny, Sunday, March 3, 2024

The scrutinies are a series of rites for adults who wish to be baptized. They are celebrated in the third, fourth, and fifth weeks of the Lenten season.

This is considered a period of purification and enlightenment for the elect. There are prayers of exorcism which are intended to help purify the elect from sin and sinful desires. The overall prayers and laying on of hands are to help the elect be enlightened by the Word and grace of God.

1st Scrutiny: Christ as Living Water (John 4:5-42) - In this Gospel story of Jesus meeting a Samaritan woman at a well, Jesus speaks to her of living water.

TIME TO CLEAN OUT YOUR SHOE CLOSET!!
