PASTORAL PONDERINGS

This coming Wednesday the Church celebrates All Saints Day which is a holy day of obligation. The Church defines a saint as a person in heaven (officially canonized or not) who lived a heroically virtuous life, offered their life for others, or were martyred for the faith, and who are worthy of imitation.

When we pray the Apostles Creed, we say, "I believe in the communion of saints." The communion of saints is made up of men and women who have placed their hope in Jesus Christ, and through baptism, are his adopted sons and daughters. The communion of saints includes the living and the deceased, whether they are with God in heaven or undergoing a process of purification. In a very special way on the solemnity of All Saints, not only can we pray to our favorite saints, but we can also call upon our departed brothers and sisters whom we believe are already with God.

One of the great traditions and practices associated with the solemnity of All Saints is going to Mass; the source and summit of our faith. During Mass we remember the saints in a special way in the Eucharist. Prayer as the bread and wine are changed into the body and blood of Jesus. Another tradition on this day is to read and learn about saints, especially one's confirmation saint, and ask for their intercession so that we too might become saints.

When we go to Mass this Wednesday, we will hear the beautiful gospel message of the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes sum up Jesus' teachings about the foundations for a life of authentic Christian discipleship and the attainment of ultimate happiness here and in heaven. When we do our best to live out the beatitudes, we contribute to the building up of the Kingdom of God here on earth. On All Saints Day, we pray in a special way to the saints that they continue to help and guide us along our path of life.

God bless you and your family.

Deacon Paul Vidmar

Don't forget to turn your clocks back Saturday, Nov. 4 so that you make it to Mass on Sunday.
